

Building

October 5, 2012

Foster takes Manhattan
Architect Foster + Partners has won a contract to design a 650,000ft² New York office tower for Lehman Brothers Holdings. It will be situated on Park Avenue. Foster + Partners beat competition from Rogers Stirk Harbour + Partners, OMA and Zaha Hadid Architects. Norman Foster, chair of Foster + Partners, said: "I have a personal connection with New York, which has been a source of inspiration since my time at Yale, when the new towers on Park Avenue and its neighbourhoods were a magnet for every young architect."

Send your project images to building images@ubm.com